Hello everyone. Sangley Reunion time is just around the corner! This time it’s the “younger generation’s” turn to spearhead the reunion. So here we are----the Three Amigos and One Broad-----writing to TELL YOU that you HAVE to come to our next Sangley reunion. It’s going to be held in Austin, Texas, May 14-16, 2010 at the Courtyard Marriott and Residence Inn Austin Downtown/Convention Center. The venue is a terrific joint Marriott facility that is right at the heart of downtown and easy access to cool clubs, bars and restaurants. www.marriott.com/auscd Please consider coming. We would all love to see you, especially if you’ve never been to one. How can we convince you? The first rule of marketing is to tell the customer what they are going to get.

SO HERE IT IS, THE TOP TEN REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD COME TO THE 2010 SANGLEY REUNION:

10) You are going to have fun. Very probably, more fun than you’ve had in a long time. You will become a child again. Come prepared for some healthy regressing!

9) Our reunion site—Austin, TX—is centrally located in the country, so there is a good chance more people will be attending. Many of the discount airlines including Southwest, JetBlue, AirTran and Frontier service to Austin.

8) This is a great chance to see some of the folks that you grew up with.

7) Austin is a very cool place. Great music, food, etc.

6) John Youell has promised to do a pole dance. (Actually we think that’s probably a negative, so we will make him promise not to perform.)

5) Libby Kossler, who lives in Austin, has promised to do a pole dance, but also not a good idea...(same deal as with John).

4) Harry Luzius (who WON’T sing a karaoke version of Wild Thing) will do a break dance.

3) Can you pole dance? This is getting old, and we’re out of dumb ideas, but the number one reason why you should come is:

1) This will NOT be like your High School reunion. This is a completely different experience, more like a family reunion…a REALLY fun family reunion!

Here is a basic outline of that weekend’s schedule:

Friday Night - Happy Hour Greeting, dinner following on your own. Texas barbecue, barbecue, barbecue! Suggested activities: Drive out to The Salt Lick! Pay homage at the Stevie Ray Vaughn statue! Listen to music at Antone’s! Check out the Austin nightlife!

Saturday Beach Picnic & Auction: Some of the items that were very sought after were the Sangley Officer's Club ashtray, Bill Youell's old jewelry box from the base exchange containing a Philippine silver belt buckle with his initials, David McCartney school "SP" letter, a framed copy of the original poster ad of the Beatles concert in Manila in 1966, a box of Philippine cigars with the Sangley Point logo engraved on the top, tokens from the gedunk, and old Philippine currency. * Baptizing the "stake" in Bahamaian waters (Carp needs to post the photo to the website!)*

Saturday night gambling: Alan Camiol won the $1000 jackpot in the slots. His wife, Pansy Balandra Camiol (the JPJ alum) won $300 in the penny slots! * Climbing the Rock Wall via the "Bunny Trail" * Shopping/Exploring the ship. * More Food (midnight buffet) * Dancing/Bar-Hopping/Night Clubbing * Judy Hanna "bringing down the house" with an unrehearsed virtuoso performance.

Sunday business meeting: New Board Members selected, Marilyn Quinsaat is the new alumni president and a reunion committee will be chaired by Bill Kossler. * Mona Hooks and Barbara Carroll Meyer won the "free cruises". *

Monday morning farewells.

Check out the 2007 reunion group photo on the JPJ web site. Is that a group of happy, handsome, young-for-their-age, fun loving, well dressed folks or what?!

It would be neat to see where the JPJ Reunion 2007 shirts travel. If you happen to travel to a notable landmark and have your JPJ Reunion 2007 shirt on, how about taking a picture and send it in to Carp for posting on the JPJ website. Brother Bill and I went to Mexico deep sea fishing at the end of May and had our picture taken with "landmark" twin peaks in the background and, of course, we were sporting our JPJ Reunion 2007 aloha shirts.

Mark your calendars for reunion 2010 or you will miss another one!

Saturday Night - Dinner and dance, with a possible resurrection of Sangley Point’s “The Band”, and their offshoot “The Maggots”, and a band of their younger siblings, “The Larvae”. All the best hits that we danced to and listened to on the Teen Club Jukebox.

Sunday Morning - Brunch Meeting and Goodbye

The registration fee is $120 per person. This includes the Friday happy hour, Saturday night dinner and dance, Sunday brunch, and of course, the famous JPJ Reunion T-shirt. This is the same registration fee that was charged at Washington D.C. and New Orleans, so we’re not increasing the costs to you. What a deal!

We are still compiling a data base of Sangley alumni. If this letter was forwarded to you, and we don’t have your contact information, please email one of us at the addresses below or join the JPJ Alumni Association (see back of newsletter). We’d like to know what you are doing these days, we can help you get in touch with other Sangley-ites, and you’ll be put on a list for future correspondence.

So, set aside time in your busy schedule to be a part of this. We promise you’ll be glad you did. See you there!

The 2010 Reunion will be held at the Marriott Courtyard & Residence Inn by the Austin Downtown Convention Center on 300 East 4th Street. Check it out at www.marriott.com/auscd. The two hotels are joined together and share facilities to provide better service for the guests. This includes an indoor pool/whirlpool, a fitness center, business center, complimentary Internet access, Starbucks Coffee shop and Champions Restaurant and Sports Bar. The hotels are two blocks away from infamous 6th Street with tons of live music, shopping, restaurants and bars. It’s three blocks from Shoal Beach at Lady Bird lake and Congress Ave. where it’s a good bet that we’ll see the bats come out of their caves at dusk. Straight up Congress Ave. leads to the State Capitol Building. Around the corner is Stubb’s Bar-B-Q known for, what else, as well as their Gospel Sunday Brunch.

A short cab ride over the bridge takes you to Congress Ave. for hip shopping and dining. Or go the other way and head up to the University of Texas campus. Speaking of music, they don’t call Austin the Live Music Capital of the World for nothing. You can’t walk two steps without running into a live music venue. But must experiences are a drop into Antone’s, Speakeasy or La Zona Rosa.

Want to get away? Get a car and take a drive out to Barton Springs Pool to cool off, or take a drive through the Hill District. End the evening at Salt Lick at what is arguably the best barbecue in the Austin area. Need outdoor exercise? Go hiking or biking around the lake. Or better still, rent a kayak. Rentals are all close by.

How do you book a room? First select from your room options. And here’s the great deal. At The Marriott Courtyard, the Single Rate per night is $159. Double, Triple and Quad Rates are all $169 per night. At the Residence Inn, all rooms are $169 per night. The Residence Inn rooms are full suites with a kitchen and living area and come with complimentary breakfast buffet. These rooms are limited, so book fast! Rates apply for both King and Queen beds. The trick here is to call your friends and agree to share a room. Save a bundle! But you must book it by May 7th.

To make a reservation at The Marriott Courtyard, call 1-800-321-2211 and ask the agent for a room for the John Paul Jones Reunion on May 14-16, 2010 at the Austin Downtown Convention Center.

To make a reservation at the Residence Inn, call 1-800-331-3131 and ask the agent for a room for the John Paul Jones Reunion on May 14-16, 2010 at the Austin Downtown Convention Center.

Or at least digital! This will be one of the last paper newsletters you’ll get. Unless you specifically request a print copy, very soon, JPJ alumni newsletters and other communications will come out as emails and posted on the JPJ alumni site. Check out the great photos at www.jpjalumni.org! So send us your current updated contact information and be sure to include your email address. To encourage you to update your information, we’re giving away prizes, prizes, prizes! All you have to do is send us your updated contact information with your email and we’ll enter your name in a drawing. Even if you think it’s already current. It’s that simple! Here’s what you could win…
